Short haul

From the moment you arrive, you'll be treated like a princess

Kensho Boutique MYKONOS, GREECE

Blink and you might just miss Kensho Boutique. One of Greece's hippest hotels, it sits discreetly behind unassuming sliding glass doors in Ornos Beach, a mega party hub (and summer retreat of swathes of 'It' DJs, actors and celebs), just far enough from the beach to provide a soothing haven. From the moment you arrive, you'll be treated like a princess: think Hermès tissues to dab your brow and a freshly squeezed juice, chilled to perfection. Every inch of the hotel is thoughtfully designed: contemporary decor is offset by natural materials, such as local stone and bleached driftwood, for a cool and comfy vibe, and rooms are effortlessly chic (junior suites feature free-standing baths and secluded plunge pools). Dining here is sublime, with a 10-course menu that takes you on a culinary journey through Greece: poached lobster and king crab, pork belly, red mullet and a dreamy stifado wagyu beef stew – plus desserts! Equally satisfying is a trip to The Cave, a rocky, otherworldly haven inside the hotel's spa – serenity guaranteed. At night, when the pool sparkles a rainbow of colours, head to the rooftop bar overlooking the bay for a Myconian Breezer to sip under the stars. (Brides loved this cocktail so much, we got the recipe!)

WINNING STREAK The chic decor – the chunky carved wooden headboards and the cool bambú swinging chair, in particular, will have you furiously Googling to find similar designs for your bedroom at home. GO Scott Dunn (scottdunn.com) offers seven nights in a Deluxe Room With Outdoor Hot Tub from £1,400 per person, B&B, including flights and transfers.
