Right from its inaugural year, Kenshō Boutique Hotel in Mykonos managed to establish itself in the highly competitive luxury tourism market, thanks to its unique character, its ground-breaking perspective on luxury and its modern approach to traditional hospitality services. Part of this success is due to Kenshō Fine Dining Restaurant, under the supervision of Executive Chef George Stylianoudakis.

In sync with the hotel's aesthetics of unobtrusive luxury, Kenshō Restaurant has received praise from guests and professional critics alike for its creative approach to traditional tastes from Crete and the Cyclades.

Also, this year Kenshō Boutique Hotel is proud to have Dimitris Chronopoulos - Pastry Chef, considered the best pastry chef in Greece.

Awards and accolades from Greek and International competitions soon followed:

- Gold Reward for Best New Comer from FNL Best Restaurant Awards
- Silver Reward from FNL Best Restaurant Awards
- Greek Cuisine Awards 2017 by Athinorama
- Top 10 Best Gourmet Getaway from Mr & Mrs Smith Hotel Awards
- World Luxury Restaurant Awards – Best Food Styling & Presentation Award 2017
